Psalm 110 (NASB)

[1] The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet." [2] The LORD will stretch forth Your strong scepter from Zion, saying, "Rule in the midst of Your enemies."
[3] Your people will volunteer freely in the day of Your power; in holy array, from the womb of the dawn, your youth are to You as the dew.
[4] The LORD has sworn and will not change His mind, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek." [5] The Lord is at Your right hand; He will shatter kings in the day of His wrath. [6] He will judge among the nations, He will fill them with corpses, He will shatter the chief men over a broad country. [7] He will drink from the brook by the wayside; therefore He will lift up His head.

Why Should I Be Confident?

Psalm 110

Jesus' favorite scripture.

Created confidence in Him (in us).

- A Promise (vs. 1-2)

  THE Lord – Jehovah (vs. 1, 2, 4)
  My Lord – Adonai (v. 1b, 5)
  A promise to the Messiah
  An assertive God. Authoritative.

- A People (v. 3)

  Volunteers Holy
  Many (like dew)
  Young

- A Priest (v. 4)

  Hebrews 7:25 Therefore He is able also to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

- A New Perspective (vs. 5-7)

  "The Lord (Adonai) IS at your right hand."
  David's confession
